The Blessings of a Baptismal Service:

In God’s time, we were able to see four believers obey the Lord in believers baptism. Each one of them were able to share a clear testimony of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. God is good! Evangelist Randy Starr (who is also sent by our sending church) was able to help and what makes this special is that he was able to baptize Joe, his grandson. I know that Grandpa and Grandma Starr have fasted and prayed for the salvation of both of our boys. What a double blessing to be able share in this God-honoring event. Now, you know as Baptists, we cannot function without food and friendliness. So following the baptismal service, we enjoyed an evening of feasting and recalling the things we learned in the adult/teen Sunday School and AM service. You may listen to the bi-lingual (English/Tagalog) messages prepared by Dr. Starr at www.sermonaudio.com/mzbmp. We are blessed!

The Blessings of an Evangelistic Service:

On Sunday morning, Oct. 21. Dr. Starr preached a message on Evidences of Salvation. A lady (Ms. Lowela) and her 5 year old son came that morning. She came forward at the invitation to be dealt with concerning salvation. Also, another lady (Hannah) also came forward. Both of them were dealt with individually, and both of them received Jesus into their hearts. God is good! Hannah attended the Saturday ladies get-together with Mrs. Starr. God blessed His Word by saving two precious souls. Please pray that they will continue to grow in the grace of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The Blessings of Family: WT and Joe got to spend quality time with their grandparents. I am amazed that the grandparents have the energy to put up with these rambunctious boys. I am even more thankful to God for blessing us with godly influences. We treasure the family that God has given us.
