Now I've Heard Everything!

August / September 2018

We had a very encouraging visit from a supporting pastor and his wife. In over 24 years of missions, this is the 1st time a supporting pastor has visited us on the field!

We did have another supporter stop in as he was already “in country” visiting his daughter and grandchildren (Thank you for that visit Pastor Benefield!) but this was the first time that we were the reason for a visit. Amen! Thank you Pastor and Mrs. Armstrong.

What was even more amazing is that Pastor Armstrong preached a follow up message to the one that I had preached just the week before, but he didn't know that!

On the Sunday of the Armstrongs' visit, we had other visitors. One was an American, who when asked how he heard about us, told us, “I heard about you from an online gamer in Iowa.” What?! We don't play online games! I guess someone who heard of us does! Upon hearing this, Luke said, “Now I've heard everything!”

We have a couple of new “regulars”. Kristjan first came about 2 years ago and only visited about 2-3 times. He recently returned and has been faithful. Additionally, John Moses came to us after visiting other places. There was a “déjà vu” moment when he stated that he wanted to go to a church, not a “club” and that we were the only “normal” ones that still used hymnals and Bibles!

It pays to soulwin! (Long story short) Witnessed to Sveta while doing electrical for her. She came to church and then started studying. Penny led her to the Lord! Amen. We then built a theater for her to share the Gospel.

Recently her son-in-law was working in France and part of the job entailed remodeling cruise ships. As they were removing the carpet from the ships he realized that Sveta could use some of it in the theater. So, he traveled 2000 miles to Estonia from France, dragging the used carpet with him. We installed the carpet in the theater, but there were leftovers – just enough to re-carpet the prophets' chamber! Woohoo!

HUGE answer to prayer, but keep praying!

Erik, an atheist businessman who has been coming for years, declared just a few weeks ago that he now believes, meaning that he acknowledges that God exists and that Jesus is God. WOW! What a huge step! Please keep praying that he will next accept Christ's sacrifice and be saved!
