Subject: Monday Update

We only had half the normal attendance at our Married Student's Bible Study on Friday night, due to sickness and work schedules. Jan taught on Psalm 23 and I taught the men about resolving conflicts in ministry. That's a pretty big subject for one hour, but I was able to give them an overview of some common scenarios. I enjoy the opportunity to be in an "outside of class" setting with these men.

On Saturday night our church had an activity for Brazilian Father's Day. We had a very good attendance and the Lord gave us good weather. (Translation: warmer than it has been!) They had some family activities, a good message, and everyone brought sausage that one of our men grilled. (Jan was surprised at how many sausage sandwiches some people can eat)

I was able to contact a pastor that has started a congregation in another part of Campina Grande do Sul (the city in which we have bought property for a church plant). Hopefully we can work out an opportunity to meet in the next couple of weeks and talk about the needs of the city as well as evangelistic strategy.

For His Harvest,

Ed and Jan
