Subject: Monday Update

Jan flew out last Monday evening and her mother passed away while Jan was en route. The funeral was on Thursday in Greenville and the family felt it went well and that mom and her Lord were honored. Our son, Ed, and his family were able to be at the funeral and Jan enjoyed being with four of our grandkids for a couple of days. Then she and her brother Mike flew to Chicago on Sunday for a Monday funeral there at our home church. Because of delays and a missed flight they ended up spending the whole day to get to Chicago. The funeral was in the late morning on Monday and they flew back to Greenville in the afternoon.

Hanna's family came to the funeral in Chicago so Jan was able to spend a few hours with our youngest grandson. She is grateful that she was able to participate in both services, but she is definitely tired of traveling! While she has been away, I have been "remembering" how to do laundry, hang out the clothes, wash dishes, wash the fruits and vegetables, etc. I have always thought my wife was amazing, but the older I get, the more amazing I think she is!

Wednesday night I will be preaching at our church. I am doing an overview of the book of Joel over four Wednesday nights. On Friday evening we have the Bible College couple's Bible study, and I will be teaching that. On Friday morning Jan will travel to Charlotte to begin her trek back to Brazil. I know she would appreciate your prayers that none of her flights will be cancelled.

For His Harvest,

Ed and Jan
